AWARD

By order No. ID/FD/898-D-76/22030, dated 4th June, 1977, the Governor of Haryana referred the following dispute between the management of M/s Cuttler Hammer India Ltd., Faridabad and its workman Shri Dina Nath Giri, to this Court, for adjudication, in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (c) of sub-section (1) of section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947:—

“Whether the termination of services of Shri Dina Nath Giri was justified and in order? If not, to what relief is he entitled?

On receipt of the order of reference, notices were issued to the parties. The parties appeared and filed their pleadings. The management has closed their case. The workman had examined two witnesses but the case was fixed for remaining evidence of the management. It was at this stage that a settlement has been arrived at between the parties. The settlement has been produced by the representative for the management and it is admitted by the representative for the workman. The settlement provides that the workman shall receive a sum of Rs. 10,190.50 from the management against his full and final payment of all his claims including his claim of reinstatement or re-employment and against unpaid earned wages, earned leave, bonus, ex gratia, etc. The settlement further provides that the workman shall tender his resignation and the management shall accept. The settlement prays that no dispute award may be given. I have gone through the settlement. It is just and fair. The representative for the workman admits that the workman has received the said sum of Rs. 10,190.50 and has settled his dispute. I, therefore, answer this reference and give my award that the workman has settled his dispute, has received a sum of Rs. 10,190.50 as stated above and has foregone his claim of reinstatement or re-employment if he had any and that now there is now no dispute between the parties. I also award that the termination of services of the workman were justified and in order and he is not entitled to any relief whatsoever.

NATHU RAM SHARMA,
Presiding Officer,
Labour Court, Haryana,
Rohtak.

Dated, the 28th July, 1978.
